

Kia Kaha

Kia Kaha means
"standing proud and strong".

In class we have talked about how we want to be active learners. What we want, what we need and how we will achieve success in Room 4.

Room 4 is ONE TEAM working together to help everyone achieve their best.

Write down 5 things that YOU can do to be an active learner.

READING

Make sure you have selected a book from your group box to take home to read.

Please return to school on Friday 10th February Parent/Guardian_____

Class News

From the teachers:

Welcome to the Middle School. It has been a lovely start to the year and we would like to thank you for quickly bringing in all the stationery and making sure all clothing is named! Hats are a compulsory part of the school uniform this term and can be purchased from the office as well as online.

Home Learning books come home on a Monday and need to be returned to school on a Friday. House points are awarded to children for the completion of their Home Learning and having books back at school on the correct day.

This week's learning will include:

- New classroom routines and setting out of books
- Listening carefully and following complex instructions
- Beginning home learning -
- Testing of spelling words Monday to Thursday at home. Tested in class by buddy.
- Topic work activity
- Home Reading books

TOPIC - About Me

We are looking at what makes us special.

Write down 5 things that make YOU special. 5 things that are unique to you.

- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

You are ONE person but your life is woven in the fabric of many other people's lives - family, friends and even strangers are part of your life.

*Many strands woven together
to create beauty
and strength.*
